American English for Spanish Native Speakers has taken a customized approach to ESL instruction. Instead of adopting a one size fits all, like most of the ESL text or instruction books, this book identifies, isolates and targets the specific areas of phonological and grammatical challenges that are unique to Spanish native speakers in their quest to acquire, and or master American English. Spanish native speakers are able to learn at a much faster rate with this book because the content only treats with the challenges and difficulties they experience in learning American English and provides guidance, explanation and practice exercises to help them overcome and master the identified linguistic problems. This book helps Spanish native speakers avoid having to deal with the useless and irrelevant challenges relative to French, Japanese, German, Indian etc native speakers which are not necessarily the same as the challenges of the Spanish Native Speakers. In addition, American
