History Of Iceland : Gunnar Karlsson : 9780816635894

"Most general surveys of Icelandic history in English are unfortunately either old and dated or written for tourists in a way that will inevitably seem superficial." So writes Gunnar Karlsson in the brief introduction to his own History of Iceland, which fortunately for us fills the gap admirably. It is a professional work, with references, but it is accessible, never dry or dull, and structured so readers can easily find or skip particular topics.
