Gelsey Kirkland, a ballet legend and superstar of the dance world, also saw fit to title her book, a biography, The Shape of Love. The “ shape ” to which she alluded is the beautiful shape the ballerina achieves as she performs Romeo and Juliet, Sleeping Beauty, and other ballet classics. The title is most appropriate, although referring to ...

Selecting the right title is important, like giving the right name to your child. I chose “ The Shape of Love ” to introduce my book about the importance of moral virtue and its rootedness in love. Love transforms us. It gives us a certain shape, so to speak. Our lives are shaped by love and that shape should be evident to others.

that crystals formed in frozen water are affected by our thoughts, words, and feelings. Since humans and the earth are composed mostly of water, his findings have far-reaching ramifications for individuals, for human society, and for the global environment. In The Shape of Love, Dr. Emoto shares new images from his research and for the first time draws out the significant lessons of his work. In a clear, conversational style, he interprets the messages hidden in his extraordinary photographs and explains how his discoveries can help us find answers to these eternal questions: Where did we come from? Why are we here? Where will we go after we die? Providing a new way of looking at such important issues as how we treat others and the earth itself, Dr. Emoto's findings encourage the positive actions that spell a better future for all. A magnificent follow-up to The Hidden Messages in Water, The Shape of Love is a fascinating investigation into the

"A suspenseful, tangled, erotic love story from the twisted minds of New York Times Bestselling author, JA Huss, and actor/screenwriter, Johnathan McClain." Alec. Christine. Danny. This is how you say our names. Danger is our drug of choice, the triangle our addiction. Alec. Golden boy with diamonds in his eyes. Christine. Partner in crime and owner of my heart. They know what they want. Me. Danny. Unsure of everything they're offering. But if she needs me, I come. So when he called, I went. It's just that simple. Until it wasn't. Until all those memories come rushing back with all the things we left behind. I only know three things. There is no her without him. No me without them. No we without us. We are Alec, Christine, and Danny. And this is the shape of our love.

It's Rashin's first day of school in America! Everything is a different shape than what she's used to: from the foods on her breakfast plate to the letters in the books! And the kids' families are from all over! The new teacher asks each child to imagine the shape of home on a map. Rashin knows right away what she'll say: Iran looks like a cat! What will the other kids say? What about the country YOUR family is originally from? Is it shaped like an apple? A boot? A torch? Open this book to
